God saw him getting tired and a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around him, and whispered

“Come With Me”

A golden heart stopped beating, gentle hands laid to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best

It saddens us to lose him but he didn't go alone
For part of us went with him the day
God took him home.

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to express our sincere appreciation and heartfelt gratitude for all of the prayers, acts of kindness, and words of comfort extended to us during this time of sorrow. May God continue to bless you all.

Obituary

A time to be born...

Raymond Slade was the son of Rosetta Baines, adopted by Maryann Slade, and was later reared by the Palmer family. He was born November 7, 1920 in Blanch, North Carolina and joined the Chestnut Grove Baptist Church in 1957.

A time to learn...

Raymond Slade attended Public School in Caswell County. He served in the military during World War II.

A time to work...

Raymond worked at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Dan River Mills and Woodberry Hill Baptist Church Danville, VA. He worked faithfully as a Boy Scout Master, served as President of the PTA, Sunday School Superintendent, Chairman of the Trustee Board, Chairman of the Deacon Board, President of the Senior Choir and a member of the Sunnyside Division of Men. Raymond was known for his readings and that faithful song "I Have a Father Who Can."

A time to mourn...

He leaves to mourn: a loving and faithful wife Priscilla Daley Elmore Slade of 64 years; three daughters- Gladys Price of the home; Brenda Chase (Henry) of Edgewood, MD; Shirley McCain (Robert) of Milton, NC; one son- Raymond Melvin Slade (Edith) of Eden, NC as well as one brother, Virgil Ingram of Yanceyville, NC; ten grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; seventeen great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
